ORDER GRANTING PETITIONS TO INTERVENE

This matter came before the Hearing Officer on October 6, 2003 at a Status Conference held to consider recommendations regarding the process of market definition. As a preliminary matter, prior to addressing the comments of the Parties, the Hearing Officer granted all petitions to intervene filed in this Docket as of October 6, 2003, upon a determination that the legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities or other legal interests of the petitioning parties may be determined in this Docket.¹

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

All petitions to intervene in this Docket filed as of October 6, 2003 are hereby granted.

Pat Miller
as Hearing Officer

¹ In accordance with the requirements of Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-310(a)(2).
